

crossings

A film by Deann Borshay Liem

Crossings@mufilms.org

@CrossingsDoc

mufilms.org/films/crossings/

ABOUT THE FILM

In CROSSINGS, a group of women peacemakers — including two Nobel laureates and Gloria Steinem — cross the demilitarized zone (DMZ) from North to South Korea, calling for an end to a 72-year war that has divided the Korean peninsula.

The challenges the women face, the obstacles they overcome, and the solidarity and trust they build as they forge a path to peace with their Korean sisters, is an inspiring story of bridge building and collective action.

SCREENING IN PHILADELPHIA

Sunday, September 22nd

Germantown Friends Meeting
47 West Coulter St.
Philadelphia, PA 19144

3:00pm Screening

4:30pm Q&A with Delegation

Member Hye-Jung Park

Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, Greater Philadelphia Branch

Tina Shelton | tinades@verizon.net

Korea Peace Now, Philadelphia Chapter

Hannah Lee | eelh@sas.upenn.edu

mu
FILMS

