

Get involved in Peace Day September 21

Choose or create an activity that is meaningful for you!

- Reach out to collaborators... Peace Day is a great opportunity to form new partnerships!
- Engage your community and/or kids in peace activities. Check out the Peace Day Philly Toolkit on our website along with many other ideas: http://bit.ly/1zVsCc4.
- Make the Minute of Silence at noon on 9/21
 (a global activity in all time zones) part of your observance.

- Consider a gathering with food in keeping with the international initiative Global Feast for Peace.
 This can include inter-cultural dialogue. Global Feast PDF: http://bit.ly/1IRtF1j.
- Reach out to your local library and encourage them to use after school programs to engage youth in peace activities, such as peace haiku or peace pledges.
- Make your voice heard! Call your favorite radio station and ask them to play a set for peace on September 21.
- Consider "planting" a Peace Pole in your community or at your school and have a simple gathering around it.

- Encourage meditation groups and centers to dedicate their practice to peace on Sept. 21.
- Ask your local representative for a public statement in support of Peace Day engagement.
- Create an activity around Dr. Jane Goodall's youth and environment program, Roots & Shoots: https://www.rootsandshoots.org.
- Consider an activity that relates to the global Peace Day theme, set by the United Nations: https://www.un.org/en/observances/ international-day-peace
- Use the universal statement, "May Peace Prevail On Earth!" (http://worldpeace.org) at the end of gatherings on and around Sept. 21.
- Share your activities and photos with us!

 Tell your friends and co-workers about Peace Day, and encourage them to take meaningful action!
